

Access Plus... Providing Equal Access to Library Resources

Looking for a book or other material your library doesn't own? Your librarian can find it for you at another library and borrow it through the Access Plus Program!

About 185,000 interlibrary loans are made annually through this program.

For more information, ask your librarian.