

State Library of Iowa Digital Copyright Agreement

The State Library of Iowa's digital repositories make their holdings available to the widest possible audience by making works openly available on the Internet, where copyright and licensing permits, and having the material indexed by major search engines.

I, the undersigned, hereby authorize the State Library of Iowa (the "State Library") to publish and make available on the Internet via its digital repositories (the "repositories") a copy of my research paper, article, journal, photo collection, or other intellectual property (the "Content").

Also, I agree:

- that the State Library makes no warranties or promises, and is not responsible for any unauthorized use of my Content, and I agree to hold the State Library harmless from all such uses;
- that my Content does not include intellectual property created by others, including text, images, video, music, or other materials, unless the materials are in the public domain, or written permission to distribute such materials has been obtained by me, and presented along with the Content;
- that I am responsible for establishing digital rights management for my materials if they are not in the public domain, and for responding to requests for use of my materials;
- that the State Library will store 'use' copies of my materials, and not 'archival' copies, and I am responsible for the permanent storage of the original material;
- that the State Library may remove my Content from its repositories without notice. Likewise, I may notify the State Library in writing, and request my Content be removed as soon as practical. I understand that the State Library is not able to remove cached copies of my Content from others' servers.
